In the 1960s, Coyote City was purchased by a group of investors who turned it into a commercial hunting operation. The new owners invested heavily in habitat improvement and deer management, and as a result, Coyote City continued to produce some of the largest deer in the world.

Today, Coyote City Big Buck City is owned and operated by the Big Buck Club, a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of deer hunting. The Big Buck Club has continued to invest in Coyote City, and it remains one of the premier deer hunting destinations in the world.

Coyote City Big Buck City offers hunting seasons for whitetail deer, mule deer, elk, and antelope. The whitetail deer season runs from October 1st to January 15th, and the mule deer season runs from September 1st to December 31st. The elk season runs from September 1st to October 31st, and the antelope season runs from August 25th to September 15th.

All hunting seasons at Coyote City Big Buck City are managed by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department (TPWD). Hunters must purchase a hunting license and tag from TPWD before hunting Coyote City.

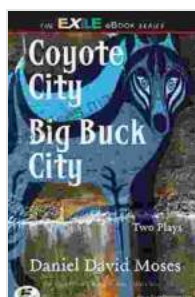

Here are a few tips to help you increase your chances of success when hunting Coyote City Big Buck City:

- Do your research. Before you go hunting Coyote City, take some time to learn about the area. This includes studying the topography, vegetation, and deer movement patterns. The more you know about the area, the better prepared you'll be to find a big buck.

- Scout the area. Once you've done your research, spend some time scouting the area. This will help you find likely spots to find deer. Look for areas with good cover, food, and water.
- Be patient. Deer hunting is a waiting game. Don't get discouraged if you don't see a deer right away. Stay patient and keep hunting, and eventually you'll be rewarded with a shot at a big buck.
- Use the right gear. The right gear can make a big difference in your success when hunting Coyote City. Make sure you have a good rifle, scope, and binoculars. You should also wear comfortable clothing and boots.
- Hire a guide. If you're new to hunting Coyote City, consider hiring a guide. A good guide can help you find the best spots to hunt and increase your chances of success.
