Curated with a keen eye for literary excellence, this anthology showcases the talents of emerging and established voices in contemporary fiction. From the haunting whispers of ancient gods to the intimate struggles of modern hearts, each story in this collection invites us on a journey of discovery and wonder.

The Enticement of the Fantastical

Resurrection of the Gods revels in the realm of the fantastical, delving into worlds where the boundaries between reality and the imagination blur. In "The Oracle of Delphi," a young woman is chosen to speak for the gods, only to find herself caught in a dangerous game of prophecy and power.

In "The Last Minotaur," the mythical creature finds itself trapped in a modern-day labyrinth, confronted by the brutality of human nature.

Through these fantastical elements, the stories in Resurrection of the Gods explore timeless themes of identity, belonging, and the search for meaning amidst chaos.

The Uncanny and the Profoundly Human

While the fantastical elements provide a captivating backdrop, it is the deeply human experiences that anchor the stories in Resurrection of the Gods. In "The Night Watchman," an elderly man wrestling with grief and loneliness finds solace in the company of a spectral figure.

In "The House on the Edge of the World," a family discovers that their new home holds a dark secret that threatens to consume their lives.
